HURRICANE HUTCH #14.
"The Secret of The Flame"

DEC 10 1921

By Charles Hutchison.

The current episode shows "Hutch" and Nancy seeking Brinkley, who has the silver scarf in his possession, and endeavoring to reach him before Marlow and Tigerly are able to act. The opposing factions reach Brinkley at the same time, however, while the latter is collecting specimens of seaweed in a small boat. Determining to bring an end to the wrangling, Brinkley throws the scarf overboard, outwitting both parties. Donning a dive suit, Tigerly goes beneath the water's surface, and secures the scarf before "Hutch" and Brinkley meet. Brinkley informs Larry Hutchdale that he got the scarf from Tigerly, promising to decode it. When Hutch demands it, Brinkley points to the fire-place, telling him that he has burnt it up as he can remember the code figures. "Hutch" looks in the fire-place and discovers the code letters unharmed, as they were sewed into the scarf with asbestos thread. The next day he leaves for the cave where the formula is hidden. Brinkley has also left for the cave, determining to double-cross Marlow and Hutch as well. Larry lets himself down the side of a cliff with a rope, but after he has descended only a few feet the rope breaks and he is plunged into the swirling rapids below.
